

The Kids' Guide To Business

Preparing and Launching Kids into Business

This guide provides a kid-friendly approach to introduce, prepare and launch kids into business. Kids take steps to develop a business and are easily engage in the book as they explore an advance lemonade stand business case using an innovative business development tool for kids. The author acts as a kid's business advisor, helping them explore business ideas, gain career exposure and experience while discovering many aspects of business. Kids create a "Vice President of Fun" position to ensure their enjoyment! The book is enhanced with online business programming from www.TheKidsGuideToBusiness.com and is a great "gift of business for kids™"

"Kids are eager to move beyond making their beds and mowing the lawn. Hundreds of kid's résumés submitted to TeachingKidsBusiness.com revealed that kids are ready to prepare for a future and consider business. This book helps people talk to kids about business, introduces kids to business and prepares kids for developing a business. Kids explore many easy steps to develop a business. To make the experience kid-friendly, reference is made to a lemonade stand business. Fun is guaranteed as kids are given the job of creating fun during their business experiences."
